Grant opportunity to review:
National Center for Border Security and Immigration and Dept. of Homeland Security Summer Scholars Academy Program at The University of Texas at El Paso (for undergraduates)

Funding Source / Number
Source: National Center for Border Security and Immigration

Awards
Amount: $4000 stipend plus room and board
Project Period: June 4-August 10, 2012

Purpose
Geared towards academically inclined undergraduate students from various disciplines interested in careers in homeland security and related industries. Students select from a number of research projects on which they will assist.

Eligibility
Undergraduate with 60 credit hours or more and G.P.A. of 3.3

Deadline
March 19, 2012

How to Apply
Requires a statement of purpose, two recommendations, transcripts, etc.
See their website at http://osi.utep.edu/ncbsi/student_opportunities.html